A Special Note to Our Hornets

Hi Hornets!

I'm so excited to see how full the campus is now with so many new faces. I hope you're all having a great start to the semester! For those who are coming to our campus for the first time, I'm confident that you will create a safe and loving community and support system here at Sac State. For those of you returning to our campus, welcome back and remember that you're one step closer to your finish line!

I want to encourage you all to get involved outside of the classroom, whether that's in ASI committees, Greek Life, or Clubs. Find your safe space here on campus and HAVE FUN!

Stay tuned for all the amazing things we have planned for you all this year and remember that we will always be here for you!

STINGERS UP!

Best,
V ☺

Internal Committee Updates

Student Social Justice and Equity Council

09/11/2023 – First Committee Meeting

We did not need introductions so we just started by talking about what we hope to accomplish with this committee and the issues related to social justice and equity on our campus. We came up with our main focus for the committee and talked about ways to execute those goals.

Student Marketing and Outreach

We started with introductions since there were some new faces. We discussed our main goal for the committee, which is to increase the student engagement with the ASI Board of Directors. Then we discussed different ways that we want to achieve that and created a plan moving forward.
