A Special Note to Our Hornets

Hi Hornets!

We are almost half way finished with the Fall Semester! Make sure to study for midterms ahead of time and make a study schedule that includes breaks to prevent burn out. I know midterm season can cause a lot of stress, so make sure to prioritize your mental health and take advantage of the resources that are available to you at Sac State! ASI is here for all of you so feel free to reach out to us if you have any questions of concerns.
