A Special Note to Our Hornets

Hi Hornets!

I'm super excited to kick off the Spring semester more prepared and ready to get started with my responsibilities in this major, important role representing my college and over the student body voice. Even though I'm a bit nervous, I have big ideas with big ambitions on top of being late to the party. Welcome new Spring Hornets, I hope you find joy and support on-campus. I encourage you to explore and uncover all of its amazing offices, departments, activities, etc. If you returned to campus, welcome back and I hope you leap into big endeavors within your studies and academic careers!

Keep an eye out for me on-campus, I love making new friends with my fellow Hornets and if you need help for anything don't hesitate to say Hi!

Be on your toes for any announcements, events, and/or supporting services and opportunities for the students within the College of Arts & Letters, thank you!

STINGERS UP!

Best,
Jennie ☺
