A Special Note to Our Hornets

Hi Hornets!

I'm wishing everyone the best of luck with their midterms these next few weeks. It'll all be worth it with Spring Break around the corner. Make sure to remember to apply for scholarships, especially ASI's due Friday, March 15th at 5pm! But, most importantly remember to take care of yourself through self-love and healthy living. I know it can be difficult, I can relate but know that campus is here to support you academically, socially, and health-wise both mentally or physically.

STINGERS UP!

Best,
Jennie ☺
