A Special Note to Our Hornets

Hi Hornets,

The first month of the fall semester went by super-fast! I hope you all have been able to get settled to your life for the next four months of the fall semester. I also hope that you're making friends within our hornet community that you can lean on, make long lasting relationships with, and network with throughout your life here on campus. Life can sometimes throw obstacles at you when you least expect it. Please know, that you are not alone and as your VP of academic affairs, I am here to help and support you.

This is my first semester serving as your student body. I am excited to get to know many of you and for many of you to get to know me. I encourage you to get to know your campus and have fun 2023 fall semester.

Stingers up!
