Juneteenth Celebration

As the host campus of this year's symposium, we are encouraged to send a Juneteenth Delegation of 50 individuals from our campus. Sacramento State will sponsor 25 students and 25 employees to attend the Juneteenth Symposium at the Sacramento Convention Center on Thursday and Friday, June 13-14.

The event is designed to highlight African American history and achievement, foster authentic intercultural dialogue, advance sustainable Black student success efforts, and reinforce CSU's unwavering commitment to building inclusive and diverse campus communities that empower students to pursue lives of curiosity, prosperity, and self-fulfillment. Attendees will see a stellar lineup of scholars, including Nikole Hannah Jones, Dr. Ibram X. Kendi, Chancellor Mildred Garcia, and many more.

Coffee and Conversation with the President

We have started a new initiative because we knew students wanted to talk with the President. We have decided to host a monthly meeting where a few students get a chance to meet with the President and share their stories, experiences, and challenges at Sacramento State. Students are picked randomly. We have had two meetings so far, which have gone well. Look out for more next semester!
