A Special Note to Our Hornets

Happy New Year Hornets!

I hope everyone had a restful and healthy break. As we are adjusting to the weeks ahead remember to utilize all the resources you have on campus. Often the spring semester goes a lot faster than the fall semester so be very mindful of time and try to communicate with all of your teachers.

One resource I want to highlight is the ASI children's center. They provide family support services for students, and they are currently hiring. If you know anyone that may need these services, please share with as many students as possible.

In closing try to attend all campus events and please email me at any time with anything that concerns you.

Have an amazing semester, Aladria
