A Special Note to Our Hornets

Dear Hornets,

As we delve deeper into the semester, I encourage you all to use the several resources provided by the campus in order to aid and assist you for the rest of the semester. I hope we're all excited for the upcoming holidays, as it can be used as a time to rewind and relax as school can get rough at times. Always remember to pay attention to your health, both physically and mentally, as it is vital to your overall well being and success. Be sure to remain engaged on campus, with events and activities, and remember to have fun. Thank you.

Sincerely,
Chibuike Michael Ezech
