Introduction

Hello Hornets!

Spring is on the horizon, and the weather is starting to warm up (slightly). I hope that you all continue to do your best in your classes, prioritize your mental and physical wellness, and allow yourself some time to connect with nature. Don't get too caught up in your future and miss the present moment.

*Wishing you all the best,
Juliette Lopez*

College Updates

The College of Business has been working diligently with campus partners and alumni to ensure the College of Business stays competitive. The Dean of the College has been tasked with sorting out ways Sac State can implement Artificial Intelligence in classrooms in a way that prioritizes curiosity, ethics, and workforce development. The Office of Student Engagement partly sponsored by Five Star Bank hosted their Midterm Study Breaks where they were able to offer Business (and Expressed Interest in Business) students some free food and study materials.

News

The ASI and Carlsen Center SEED Grant interviewed the finalists HER Table hosted by the Women's Resource Center and fellow Cultural and Academic Resource Centers gave space for women in leadership to share their success, struggles, doubts, and accomplishments

Committee Updates

ASI Finance & Budget Committee- Went over separate departments' budgets, asked questions about each department and got clarifications

Community Engagement Center Advisory Board – Scheduling a virtual meeting for spring

Business Advisory Council – Have met for the spring, next meeting will take place in June

Business Club Union – Held our first meeting. Introduced ourselves and our clubs/organizations. Hoping that this group can help build a system for future business club officers.

Strategic Priority Updates

Our Strategic Priorities were reviewed at our Mid-year retreat on January 21st. We have been working on all our strategic priorities and have made tangible progress. I look forward to working on these priorities throughout the rest of the semester.
