A Special Note to Our Hornets

As we conclude to the Spring semester, I want to thank you all Sac State students for allowing me to serve this term.

This position showed me the systematic issues that live within our school and what it takes to push for a change. You all taught me what it is like to hold people in leadership positions accountable and I want to thank you for doing that to me when I needed it.

I am happy to see that despite the challenging year we all had, we are still pushing through and focusing on finishing this last few weeks of the semester strong.

I hope that at some point in your Sac State career, you choose to serve in leadership positions. There is always something to learn about yourself!

I recently have had a few cases where my imposter syndrome has kicked in and I want to share with you the same advice someone once shared with me...

No one is going to do what you are doing the same way you are. You are unique in your own way and no one can bring what you bring to the table.

Thank you, Hornets, for an incredible year!
