News:

Hey y'all! Welcome back, I hope everyone has been having a lovely spring semester so far. We are already a third of the way done with this semester! Make sure we keep working hard and finish out strong; only about 2 more months in office!

Last month I attended the CSSA Plenary in East Bay. It was so great to get to meet other ASIs and hear about the work that they are doing. Its also a great opportunity to learn more about how our CSU system is run and how our voice can make an impact. I highly recommend everyone try and attend one if they can.

As many of you have noticed, we have been having quite a few presentations lately. If anyone has any recommendations or presentations they'd like to see, please reach out to me. This semester will soon be filling up with legislation and resolutions so we want to try and fit as much, and the sooner the better. Additionally, as you heard from Dr. Johnson, they are piloting a diversity training called Moving Beyond Bias. Me and Christian will be attending the training this weekend.

Committee Updates:

Internal Committees:

Green Team

- The Green Team is continuing to promote the Don't Litter Our River campaign. Since graduation season is upon us, glitter will be flooding our river and causing damage to the native wildlife.

Student Social Justice and Equity Committee

- SSJEC is beginning to plan for Diversity Week in April. I can't wait to hear about all the events plan and start sharing them with students.

Student Marketing and Outreach

- Student Marketing and Outreach Committee is working on getting more students involved in the committee. Having more student voices is key to what we do, so I'm asking everyone to try and push it during presentations and student meetings.

University Committees:

Honorary Degrees Committee – President Nelsen has approved his nominations for the honorary degrees. They have been sent to the Chancellor for final approval and will be announced once that is done. There will be a reception held in their honor in April.

Homecoming Committee – Committee is complete.

Grade Appeals Panel – All appeals are being assigned and will begin the review process in the next week or two. My committee is working to set up a preliminary meeting to discuss our assigned appeals.

Strategic Priority Updates:

2.1.1 Increase number of student participants on Green Team – we have 7 students appointed to this committee according to the spreadsheet. Please keep pushing this committee so that we can reach our goal of 10 students.

2.4.1 Purchase board specific Hornet gear for advocacy efforts – completed.

3.1.2 Hold a drive for the ASI Food Pantry – collaborating with SEO to promote menstrual product drive beginning of March. Me and Denisse are also working on a food drive for April to complete this priority.
