News:

Hello Hornets,

I hope everyone is doing well and having a great semester. Midterm season is approaching so please make sure to study hard and take advantage of campus resources such as the peer and academic resource center (PARC).

This month the board has passed legislation in regards to the elimination of Columbus Day on our campus calendar, and finalized our strategic priorities for this academic year. In addition, the ASI Scholarships have opened up ranging from $500-$1000, the student employment grants will soon be available October 22, and I will be hosting 3 workshops for Dollars for Organizations and Clubs (DOC). I encourage students to utilize resources available to them, and feel free to attend my office hours for assistance or questions.

Happy fall! & Good luck on midterms!

Committee Updates:

ASI Finance & Budget (F&B) Committee

Serving as the Chair

We held two F&B meetings discussing the student employment grants and our plans for the year. We have revised and edited the Student Employment Grant application which would be available to on-campus programs Oct. 22, 2021. In addition, we had our first department presentation from the Director of Student Engagement & Outreach (SEO), addressing SEO's programs, and services.

ASI Scholarship Committee

Serving as the Chair

The ASI scholarship committee will be constructed after today's board meeting. I will host a virtual meeting with the committee to go over the timeline, rubric, and overview of committee. Starting October 29, the committee will be managing, reading, and grading the ASI scholarships anonymously.

University Committees Updates:

University Enterprises, Inc. Bookstore Advisory

No meeting held yet.

Parental Advisory Council

I have attended my first meeting at the ASI Children's Center. We went over the current center updates including the amount of staff, enrollments, current operations, and incoming funding.

Student Affairs Wellness Steering Group

I have attended my first meeting via zoom. This committee went over their priorities which include financial wellness, sense of belonging, and emotional wellness. We went over student wellness data and created subcommittees in which I am now involved in the financial wellness subcommittee.
