Few words:

I want to congratulate everyone that we have made it until November and just one more month to go in this semester. It's not easy to manage virtual life where you have one screen but lots of stuff. We all should be proud of ourselves for fighting with challenges that life threw on with a positive mindset without losing ourselves. ASI and all other departments are working hard to make things easy as possible for students. So, I want you all to hold on tight and enjoy even this virtual life as it introduced us to new view point of life.

Internal Committee Updates
