Hello Hornets!

Good luck on your midterms this month! This time of the semester can be extremely stressful for some, so please take time to care for yourself and your mental health. I'd like to take this time to shout out all of our transfer students! Happy National Transfer Student Week, I hope everyone takes this time to get to know the campus a bit better than they do already by going to an event here on campus, or joining one of the 300+ clubs on campus. Getting involved is the best way to create a friend group or community you can rely on. Also, don't forget to check out Peak Adventures for awesome outdoor activities, or come by the ASI Government Office on the 3rd floor of the University Union to talk to me if you need anything.
