A Special October Note to Our Hornets 🍂 🎃 ✨

MaBOOhay Hornets,

As the leaves turn and the spooky season arrives, we're also deep into midterms- a time that can feel both thrilling and a little haunting. Whether you're battling exams, brewing up essays, or conjuring late-night study sessions, remember you are not alone. Our campus is full of resources, communities, and opportunities to help you thrive- so take care of yourselves, lean on your peers, and don't forget to pause for a pumpkin-spice treat or a study break along the way. October is also a month of celebration and reflection where we proudly recognize Filipino American History Month, honoring the rich history, resilience, and contributions of the Filipino community while also celebrating Diwali, the festival of lights, reminding us of hope, renewal, and the triumph of light over darkness. In addition, October marks Disability Awareness Month and LGBTQ+ History Month, both of which uplift the voices and experiences of communities whose stories are vital to our Hornet family. Together, let's power through midterms, celebrate the beauty of our diverse community, and make this fall one to remember. You've got this, Hornets; stay strong, stay spooky, and as always, stingers up! 🍂 🎃 ✨
