Report to the ASI Board of Directors

Board Meeting Date: February 19, 2025

Submitted by Margaret Hwang (Vice President for Administration/CFO Designee)

1. The President's Office has commenced the recruitment of a permanent VP/CFO. The posting can be found here: <https://careers.csus.edu/en-us/job/545723/vice-president-of-administration-and-business-affairschief-financial-officer>. The proposed start date for the new incumbent is June 2025.
2. Proposal submissions for Instructionally Related Activities (IRA) will commence in March. The ASI President serves as the chair for the IRA committee with VP/CFO Office staff supporting the chair. The committee is charged with recommending allocation amounts to IRA programs (e.g., Model UN, Forensic Debate, etc.). This year, Student Organizations and Greek Organizations that have cocurricular activities will be eligible for IRA funds. More information can be found on the IRA website: <https://www.csus.edu/administration-business-affairs/operations/instructionally-related-activities.html>
3. The President's Budget Advisory Committee (PBAC) met on February 7 to review current projections and planned deficits for the next two fiscal years. PBAC will meet again on February 21, to discuss the information they want to include in the budget call and make a recommendation to the President.
