Report to the ASI Board of Directors September 11, 2019

University CFO Designee – Gina Curry

1. Financial Aid – Financial Aid disbursed $118,058,612 to 24,882 students this fall. This is just about $800,000 less but over 500 more students disbursed than last fall. Disbursements continue twice a week until September 20th, then go to once a week for the balance of the term.
2. CSU Board of Trustees – The CSU Board of Trustees (BOT) meeting is September 24th and 25th. The agenda is not yet published. Agenda and materials can be found at <http://www.calstate.edu/BOT/Agendas>
3. Hornet Honey – Sustainability is now selling Hornet Honey. Hornet Honey is extracted from hives housed in the BAC Yard (Bioconversion and Agricultural Collaborative). Students in the Food Production and Sustainability class in Family and Consumer Sciences help with the beekeeping and with the honey extractions. You can purchase the honey at the front counter of Facilities Management building between 9:00 and 4:30 M-F. A 6-ounce jar costs $8, or two for $12, and three for $20.
