Report to the ASI Board of Directors

December 8, 2021

University CFO Designee – Gina Curry

1. Spring 2022 Priority Registration has begun - The Spring 2022 priority registration period began on November 15th and continues through December 10th. Open registration begins after the winter holiday and spring orientation on January 14th. Remember to remind students to clear holds.
2. California Emergency Fund (CAEF) – The State of California has provisioned relief from economic fallout related to the COVID-19 pandemic. Like the FEDERAL HEERF funding, this funding coming from the state is available for qualifying students. Unlike the HEERF funding, there is more restrictive criteria to be able to apply. Students who qualify, currently approximately 13,000, will be notified of their eligibility. Those students have to meet the criteria and have unmet need on their financial aid award. To make it easier to apply, we are leveraging the same application for HEERF and for CAEF. Logic has been built into the application that will automatically determine eligibility and move the application to the correct funding source. The website and application are being updated this week. Eligibility criteria is as follows:
 - a. Enrolled in at least 6 units
 - b. An Estimated Family Contribution (EFC) between 0 and 5,486 based on your financial aid application
 - c. Has either:
 - i. GPA of 2.0 in one of the previous 3 semesters at Sac State or prior institution
 1. OR
 - ii. Student is disabled and receiving additional support or services through campus program for disabled students
 - d. Demonstrate emergency financial need, including loss of employment
3. Pause on Emergency Grant Disbursements – Grant applications that are fully completed by December 10th (including providing missing documentation) should be able to be processed for disbursement before the holiday break. This will allow time for the processing team to complete all applications in the queue and also includes the campus closure dates (December 23rd – January 2nd). Applications received after December 10th will be reviewed beginning the week of January 3rd.
