Message to the Hornet Family

My friends,

Often in the chaos we forget to focus on our surroundings, from my experience I can tell that the time spent in your degree can be likened to to a roadtrip, if you are too focused looking on the ground , you forget to really enjoy the scenery, midterms, tests, assignments keep coming like the bends of the road, for I can say that I don't remember the numerous assignments and tests I have taken, but I remember the events attended, the connections made.
