News:

Hornet Family,

This time last month I would have never thought we would be in the times we are in now. So much is changing and we are all moving day by day. COVID-19 has left such an impact on every one's lives in different ways, but we will get through this together. With so much going on it is important to take care of yourselves and those close to you. Do your part and stay home as much as possible, social distance, and wash your hands.

Although most of Sac State has transitioned online there are still ways you can get the resources you need to succeed and finish off this semester. If you need something from a certain program or department, reach out to them via email and see if they can help you out. Our ASI Food Pantry and Student Health and Counseling Services still remain open to serve students. Make sure to check online for hours and operations as they have changed due to COVID-19. When you have any questions, don't be afraid to reach out to someone; whether it's someone on the board, your professor, or a classmate. I am sure you will be guided to an answer.

Know that the ASI Board of Directors are still here to serve students. We are still doing our best to carry out our responsibilities as board members and students. We will continue to stay connected with our constituents. With that being said if there are any questions or concerns you have feel free to reach out to me.

Stay updated through social media and make sure to be checking your Sac Link emails for any campus updates.

Stay safe and as I said earlier, we will get through this together.

Stingers Up.

Strategic Priority Update:

1.2.1 Collaborate with other campus partners in support of census education

1.2.2 Promote census education

-I participated in the #ICount challenge and have been promoting various census material on my positional Instagram.

1.5.1 Promote CHESS Conference Attendance

-I promoted CHESS wherever I could. I believe we had a great turnout!

3.2.1 Collaborate with local and/or state leaders to host a Basic Needs Forum

- This event has been canceled due to COVID-19. However, we still wanted to continue the conversation of basic needs with legislators and local officials. We have notified all panelist of the cancelation of the event and gave them an option to create a video of them speaking on the issue. We hope to post these videos on the ASI website and promote it on social media platforms.
