A Special Note to Our Hornets:

Dear Sacramento State Students,

As we quickly shift to the Holiday season, it can be a little challenging to stay on track. Sometimes, watching ‘The Nightmare before Christmas’ or ‘The Grinch’ with a nice blanket sounds better than finishing your assignment that is due at 11:59pm that same day.

Trust me, I get it. I have been there.

However, we have to remember to stay focused. The 2021-2022 academic year will be over before we know it, and we will soon feel one step closer to getting that degree! Remember to ask for help when you need it, and communicate with your Professors.

This Holiday season, give yourself the gift of finishing the semester strong!

Director of Social Sciences and Interdisciplinary Studies.
