A Special Note to Our Hornets

Hello Hornets!

This is my third report for the Spring Semester as the 2020-21 Director of Undeclared Students for ASI and I am thrilled to be serving the students at Sac State in this role for my first term. This past year has been a blast. I have met so many wonderful people through this role and have accomplished a lot of personal goals as well. However, I acknowledge that we are still in the middle of the pandemic, and burnout for students is quite prevalent. I will not lie, I am also feeling quite burnt out. Having to juggle classes, ASI, and extracurriculars is very difficult, and I have not been able to dedicate time to myself since winter break. But everything I am doing or have done is quite worth it, and I would not trade it for anything else. Joining ASI was absolutely worth it, and I am quite excited for next year as well. I hope to do better, and continue to push students' voices and be an advocate for them. My advice for all students would be to seek support from someone, whether they are a family member, a friend, or faculty on campus. This year has been unlike any other, so try to be more gentle with yourselves. It's okay to mess up sometimes. We are not perfect. But I believe in you. My office hours are open for anyone to come by and chat. In the meantime, I wish you all the best of luck to finish out this semester strong!

Best wishes for continued success,

Sadia Ashraf
