I. Call to Order 2:00

II. Approval of the Minutes for November 30, 2020 and February 8, 2021. Approved.

III. Icebreaker Activity

Question: What is an aspect of environmental justice you are passionate about but not many others are aware of? Members took turns talking about various important environmental topics. These included food deserts, plant-based diets, use of cars, sustainability and privilege, and other means of transportation.

IV. Information Item

- Different Careers in Sustainability. Kathryn Webb
See attached presentation.

V. Discussion Item

- Earth Day
  - Green Team discussed how Earth Day should be celebrated. Members discussed having Earth Day just be a one day event, most likely in the afternoon and live on Zoom. Members proposed various speakers they would like to see at a panel on environmentalism, including a Sunrise Movement representative, assembly members McCarty and Reyes, local councilmembers, Brittany Ganguly from Millennium Alliance for Humanity and the Biosphere, and a SMUD representative.
- Sustainability Movie Nights
  - Green Team discussed if and when a sustainability movie night should be held. Members agreed that this would be a good thing to continue and proposed a screening should be held in April.

VI. Announcements

- ESO meeting on March 3, will discuss Sustainable living with a representative from Refill Madness. ESO will be hosting a movie night in March with 350 Sacramento on Friday, March 19th. They will screen Wilder than Wild and have a panel discussion afterwards. It is open to the public and free.
