

California State Student Association March 2018 Plenary: Sacramento

Payton Starke CSSA Liaison

It was so exciting being able to have the meeting on our campus. Instead of the plenary being a two day event as usual, we were able to cram everything into one day. This caused the meeting to be shorter than usual and less information was shared.

Civic Engagement

During Civic engagement, we talked about the importance of having gubernatorial events on our campuses. We want them to know that students are very important. Something that may be a potential challenge is the fact that the students terms are almost up so anything they are working on will have to be put on the next group.

Social Justice & Equity

There seems to be many internal problems with this committee. They hope to change a lot of this within the CSSA constitution. This Committee once again did not meet quorum.

University Affairs

During University Affairs we talked about how some schools are not prepared for an active shooter situation. We talked about some possible solutions for the schools including updating training procedures and a system that lets students know what is going on.
